

www.specialneeds.com - The Special Needs Project – carries books, videos, DVDs and related items about mental and physical disabilities...for parents, professionals, educators, family members and persons with a disability.

www.ableplay.org play products for children with special needs. Has a rating system that it puts products through – looking at sensory, communication, cognitive, and physical scales www.familyvillage.wisc.edu/specific.htm an electronic specific diagnoses card catalog – gives information about who to contact (i.e. national societies, etc) where to go to chat with others; info about the diagnosis; related websites; and even a google search www.nscd.org national sports center for the disabled – references adaptive recreation programs in over 20 sports for people with physical or mental challenges www.adaptivemall.com offers the info on special needs strollers, special needs car seats, toys, and adaptive equipment for children www.rjcooper.com reasonably priced software and hardware for persons with special needs